The 2024 D.C. Interoperability Summit is open for registration!

What: 2024 DC Interoperability Summit

Theme: Preparing for the 60th Presidential Inauguration: Interoperability is our Common Language

When: Wednesday, September 4th and Thursday, September 5th

Where: In person at the Kellogg Center at the Gallaudet University or Virtual Online Option

Why: The 6th Annual D.C. Interoperability Summit will focus on preparing for the November 2024 General Election, the January 6, 2025, Election Certification and the January 20, 2025, Inauguration

Agenda: 2-day agenda can be found on the Whova app

- Day 1 of the Summit will focus on what happened/lessons learned on the Ellipse and U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021.
- Day 2 will include presentations from the White House National Security Council, CISA, U.S. Secret Service, National Park Service, U.S. Capitol Police, D.C. Metropolitan Police and FIRE/EMS, U.S. Park Police, FBI, and FEMA in preparing for all aspects of the Inauguration Cycle.

Logistics: The Kellogg Center Hotel is providing a special rate for Summit Attendees. For reservations, https://reservations.travelclick.com/10458?groupID=4188216. On site lodging includes parking.

Summit Cost: FREE

Parking: Limited on-site Parking Garage will be made available to Summit Attendees at no charge, first-come, first-serve basis each day. Information on overflow (paid) parking options will be provided later to registered attendees.

Refreshments/Meals: Available in limited quantities on a first-come, first-serve basis each day (food ticket required). On site cafeteria available for food purchases.

Registration Link on the WHOVA App: 2024 DC Interoperability Summit: Preparing for the 60th Presidential Inauguration - Interoperability is our Common Language Registration (whova.com)

If you have any problems with registration, please contact ictap.dcsummit@lafayettegroup.com.